NAVAL PERSONNEL DEVELOPMENT COMMAND

Preparing for the Revolution: Task Force EXCEL

- Purpose – To catalyze the revolution in Naval Training ignited by the Executive Review for Navy Training (ERNT)

- Key ERNT Takeaways:
 - “Today’s Navy training system is neither postured nor organized to produce and maintain the trained force required [today].”

 - “The gap between what high-quality sailors and potential sailors want and expect, and what the Navy is prepared to deliver, is too great...”

What was wrong?

- $12 Billion Annual Training Budget
 - Enough to pay Harvard tuition for every Sailor every year...what about ROI?
- Funding resources disconnected from requirements-setters and trainers
- 1 of 4 Sailors in school on any given day in the Navy...away from work
- Little or no connection between acquisition, training, waterfront support, and Sailors

New Tools, New Opportunities

- Human Performance-Based Training
 - A new view of readiness-driven Training
- Four-Quadrant Model

 - Building Leaders (Leadership)
 - Job (Performance)

Executing the Vision

- CNET became Naval Education & Training Command
 - Dual-hatted as N00T...Primary Training Resource Sponsor

- Naval Personnel Development Command Created
 - Responsible for Standardization & Delivery of Individual Training

- Thirteen Learning Centers Established
 - Supporting Lifelong Continuum of Learning for Families of Ratings

Knowledge Management Defined

The systematic, explicit, and deliberate building, renewal and application of knowledge to maximize an enterprise's knowledge-related effectiveness and returns from its knowledge assets.

Karl Wiig 1997

“THE RIGHT KNOWLEDGE TO THE RIGHT PEOPLE AT THE RIGHT TIME”

Navy Knowledge Online: A Brief History

- Started when CNO articulated Manpower, including recruiting and retention, as one of his top 5 priorities
- RADM Harry Ulrich was charged by the CNO to head the Task Force Excel (TFE) initiative, but needed a clear way to communicate how TFE would meet the CNO's Manpower priority
- The result was the KM Requirements White Paper
 - Captured the vision
 - Story became a touchstone for sharing the vision
 - Navy Engineering Online CD-ROM created
- White paper and CD-ROM spawned the portal that has become Navy Knowledge Online

We defined the end state through storytelling

- Step 1 - Focus on the sailor (people) vice the technology in a KM-centric organization
 - What does this Sailor need do? Not necessarily how, but specifically what?

- Step 2 - Look at processes

- Step 3 - Define the technologies that support the people and the processes

The KM Business Model

“The whole is greater than the sum of the parts.”

- Provide an INTEGRATED, STRUCTURED, virtual learning environment
 - With personalization and intuitive workflow
- Provide the Sailor access to his/her 5VM anywhere, anytime
- Develop communities of practice focused on the Centers of Learning
- Integration with critical enterprise systems (Human Resource Systems)
- Deliver tacit and explicit knowledge
- Deliver job performance aids
- Provide reach back capability

NKO Features that Support the KM Business Model

- Distributed content management
- Personalization
- Customization and targeting of information
- Integrated Search and Taxonomy (Convera Search Platform)
- Instant Messaging, Online Presence, Interactive Chat Rooms
- Message Boards
- Collaboration Center for sharing information anywhere
- Central directory of experts
- Real time assessments and usage metrics

Knowledge Management Applied

- The Centers

- ❑ A collection point, management authority, and dissemination agent for all knowledge related to a family of ratings
- ❑ Leverages existing structure to administer the various domains within NKO

- Navy's integrated portal for

- ❑ Lifelong learning
- ❑ Personal development
- ❑ Knowledge management

Please do as much as you can to get this out to the Sailors (I just read it today in the Navy times) I have no doubt that this will soon be a site similar to BUPERS, one which we can not live without. Is there a way to get it out via message or possibly on the LESSs?

Five Vector Model's Potential Impact on Readiness

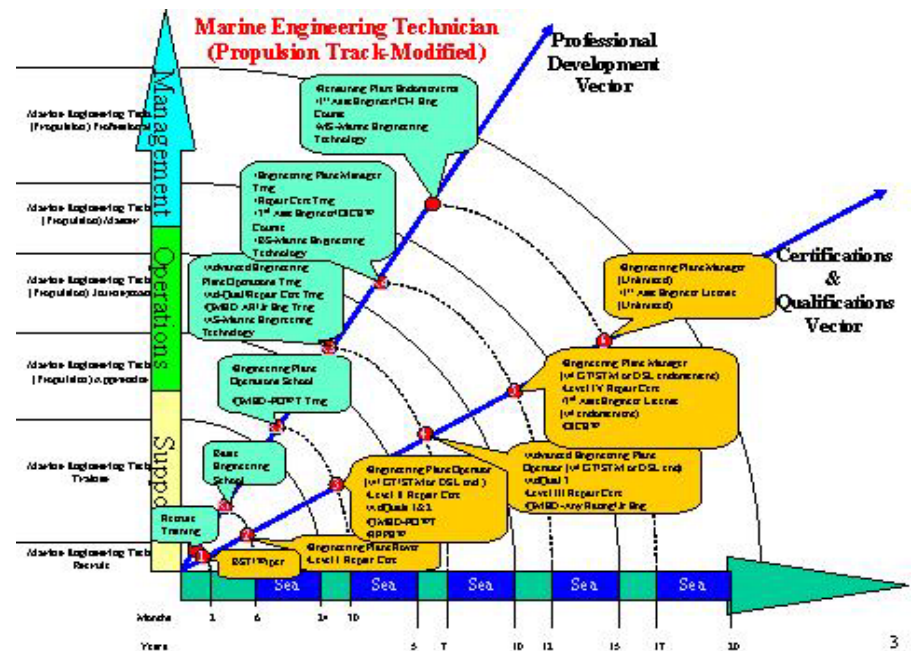

Five Vector Model Process

Dynamic Resource Quantification

- Utilizes the 5VM as an analogy
- Progression of Navy constituents through 5VM generates a composite index similar to the Dow Jones Industrial average Index

Return to Brief

More 5VM Details

Dynamic Resource Quantification

- Each individual 5VM as a “share of stock” within a company.
- Sailor ratings correlate to Companies, and, in a larger sense, to Centers.
- Vector model must be interactive – dynamic and integrated – in order to capture data and utilize it to generate promotion capabilities
