Paradigm Shift: Contractor management falls on companies; Government role is oversight

CURRENT PROCESS → FUTURE PROCESS

Current Process

Government-Owned Accountability

Contractors from many companies enter AO

Core Process:
- Deployment Spt
- RSOI
- Tracking

Customers:
- Government
- Companies
- Military

Organizing Chaos

Future Process

- Defense Contractors
- Acquisition & Contracting
- Government Agencies

Self-Registration Prompted by:
- DFARS
- Theater Entry Requirements
- Doctrine
Allows government to manage capabilities rather than headcount

Project Enablers:
Key initiatives supporting contractor management & reporting

➢ Field Joint Asset Management and Movement System (JAMMS)

– Provide ability for exact tracking of contractor assets using existing data

– Use globally unique identifiers to track contractor movement and optimize bandwidth (complies directly with DoDI)

– Provide a blueprint for tracking Third Country Nationals/Foreign Nationals

➢ Develop a system-generated Letter of Authorization (LOA) using the contractor management tool; act as administrative gate for deploying contractors

– Develop DoD standardized document to carry while on travel

– Streamline the process by automating KO signature through PKI encryption

– Minimize data entry duplication through auto-population of required fields

Contractor Accountability Roadmap

Building Relationships to Support the Warfighter

- ➢ PR Community

  - ➢ Continue partnership with SPOT

  - ➢ Move toward standardized protocols and procedures to support personnel recovery efforts

  - ➢ Share information with the logistics and acquisition communities

- ➢ SPOT as a Community Member

  - ➢ Provide current deployed contractor information

  - ➢ Share PR required data elements via authoritative sources, e.g., connect with PRMS as technologies allow

  - ➢ Respond to requests for information and send push reports to designated addressees

Examples Where SPOT And PR Meet in
SPOT V.5.3
