

C-17 Training System Sustainment Re-Compete

Mr. John Tackis

Organization: 677 AESG/TS

Phone: 937-255-2272

Email: john.tackis@wpafb.af.mil

Date: 15 May 07

Government disclaimer statement indicating that all information is provided for information purposes only, represents a best understanding of the procurement as of the presentation date, and is subject to change.

C-17 Training System Sustainment Re-Compete

Dominant Air Power: Design For Tomorrow...Deliver Today

Description

- Customer: AMC, AETC, AFRES, ANG, RAF, RAAF
- Description: This program is comprised of three components; 1) ATS and MTS Contractor Logistics Support (CLS), 2) ATS Instruction, and 3) ATS and MTS Concurrency Management.
 - This will be a combination of the existing ATS and MTS programs; see following charts
- Production of the devices will continue to reside with the incumbent contractors. This is the only factor that differs from the existing contracts covered on the following two charts.

Acquisition Strategy

- Full and Open Competition
- Single Award
- Conducted outside of TSA III

Funding

- Program Office Estimate in work

Program Office Point of Contact

Name: Mr Ricky Fennell
 Organization: 677 AESG/TS
 Phone: 937-255-2884
 Email: ricky.fennell@wpafb.af.mil

Procurement Authority Point of Contact

Name: Ms Nancy Thomas
 Organization: 677 AESG/TS
 Phone: 937-255-2942
 Email: nancy.thomas@wpafb.af.mil

Period of Performance

- FY09 Contract Award
- Base Year plus Nine One-Year Options

Data Status

- Bidder's Library being assembled
- Proprietary Data -- TBD

Milestones

- Industry Day #1 @ WPAFB – 22-24 May, Industry Day #2 @ Charleston/Industry Day #3 @ Altus - August
- Draft RFP - Oct, RFP - Jan
- Contract Award - Jan 09

C-17 Training System Sustainment Re-Compete

Dominant Air Power: Design For Tomorrow...Deliver Today

Summary of Program Requirements

Aircrew Training System

- Four aspects to the program
 - Production of the aircrew training devices/aids
 - Courseware development and instruction
 - Contractor Logistics Support
 - Concurrency Management

Current Contract

Company: Boeing-St Louis
 Contract Number: F33657-01-D-2074 (3rd contract)
 Period of Performance: Jul 01 – Sep 08

Original Developer/OEM

Company: Boeing-St Louis
 Date Delivered: early '90s

Current Installations

Locations: 10 USAF bases plus RAAF Amberley
 Number of Devices: 170 (includes computer-based products up to and including full motion-based trainers)

End User Point of Contact

Name: Denney Hughes
 Phone: 618-229-3583
 Email: denney.hughes@scott.af.mil

Additional Information

- All appropriate program documentation will be provided in the bidder's library (SOW, Specs, etc.) and well as site visits will be arranged as a part of the Sustainment Re-Compete program

C-17 Training System Sustainment Re-Compete

Dominant Air Power: Design For Tomorrow...Deliver Today

Summary of Program Requirements

Maintenance Training System

- Three aspects to the program
 - Production of the maintenance training devices
 - Contractor Logistics Support
 - Concurrency Management
- Instruction is provided by AETC

Current Contract

Company: AAI Services Corp
 Contract Number: F33657-D-03-2030 (2nd contract)
 Period of Performance: Jun 03 – Sep 10

Original Developer/OEM

Company: AAI Services Corp
 Date Delivered: mid 2000

Current Installations

Locations: 7 USAF bases
 Number of Devices: 37

End User Point of Contact

Name: TSgt Kurt Melloch
 Phone: 618-229-2713
 Email: kurt.melloch@scott.af.mil

Additional Information

- All appropriate program documentation will be provided in the bidder's library (SOW, Specs, etc.) and well as site visits will be arranged as a part of the Sustainment Re-Compete program

KC-10 AMP

U.S. AIR FORCE

Mr. John Tackis

Organization: 677 AESG/ TS

Phone: Comm (937) 255-2272

Email: john.tackis@wpafb.af.mil

Date: 15 May 2007

Government disclaimer statement indicating that all information is provided for information purposes only, represents a best understanding of the procurement as of the presentation date, and is subject to change.

U.S. AIR FORCE

Training System Name

Dominant Air Power: Design For Tomorrow...Deliver Today

Description <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Acquisition of the KC-10 AMP Tanker Maintenance Training Systems.
Acquisition Strategy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Currently planning to have a separate contract for the maintenance training system. 	Funding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> This program will consist of 3600, 3010, and 3400 funding. Funding estimates are currently not released at this time.
Program Office Point of Contact <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Name: Major John Armstrong Organization: 677 AESG/TS Phone: Comm (937) 255-2778 Email: John.Armstrong@wpafb.af.mil 	Procurement Authority Point of Contact <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Name: Organization: • PCO not identified. 677 AESG will do the procurement. Phone: Email:
Period of Performance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Acquisition strategy not yet determined 	Data Status <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Government has requested data rights from prime aircraft modification manufacturer for use in development of training systems. Flight data package requirements included in Aircraft procurement.
Milestones <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 677 AESG will begin communication with industry for training systems after aircraft contract award.

KC-X (KC-45A)

U.S. AIR FORCE

Mr. John Tackis

Organization: 677 AESG/ TS

Phone: Comm (937) 255-2272

Email: john.tackis@wpafb.af.mil

Date: 15 May 2007

Government disclaimer statement indicating that all information is provided for information purposes only, represents a best understanding of the procurement as of the presentation date, and is subject to change.

Training System Name

U.S. AIR FORCE

Dominant Air Power: Design For Tomorrow...Deliver Today

Description <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Acquisition of the KC-X (KC-45A) Tanker Aircrew and Maintenance Training Systems.
Acquisition Strategy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Currently planning to have separate contracts for maintenance and aircrew training systems. 	Funding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> This program will consist of 3600, 3010, and 3400 funding. Funding estimates are currently not released at this time.
Program Office Point of Contact <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Name: Major John Armstrong Organization: 677 AESG/TS Phone: Comm (937) 255-2778 Email: John.Armstrong@wpafb.af.mil 	Procurement Authority Point of Contact <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Name: Organization: • PCO not identified. 677 AESG will do the procurement. Phone: Email:
Period of Performance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Acquisition strategy not yet determined 	Data Status <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Government has requested data rights from Aircraft manufacturer for use in development of training systems. Flight data package requirements included in Aircraft procurement.
Milestones <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 677 AESG will begin communication with industry for training systems after aircraft contract award. 	